IS A RIALTO TRIUMPH

"Mothers of France," a new patri otto film in which Sarah Bernhardt ber recent arrival in America, is the feature at the Rialto Theatre this week. Jean Richepin, a member of the French Academy, wrote the scenario under commission from the French Government. It is a really great picture, one which evokes applause from the crowds which see it. The story is one that illustrates the patrictism and sacrifice of the women of France since the war began.

Mine Bernhardt, by her acting in "Mothers of France," demonstrates that she is still a wonderful actress, despite recent misfortunes which should have sapped her vitality somewhat. To her work must be ascribed the chief reason for the success of the film. The picture has crested as much interest that the Haliton. eted the principal role, just prior to

M. daily in order to accommodate all was would see it. The other numbers on the Rialto's bill this week are far above the average, and with "Mothers of France" they make an exceptional show.

NOBODY ESCAPES POPULAR APPROVAL IN COLUMBIA'S BURLESQUE

WESTCHESTER NOTES

The will of Lawrer Nathan P. Bushnell of Peekskill, who committed suicide last week, has been filed. It leaves the entire estate to the widow, Margaret B. Bushnell. Mr. Bushnell left insurance policies aggregating $40,000, and it is expected considerable funds will be found when his hox in a Peekskill bank is opened. It is reported that Mr. Bushnell left debts aggregating nearly $100,000, but counsel for the widow, says he believes all liabilities will be met.

The will of Col. William Withers,

The will of Col. William Withers, who was the leader in the orchestra in Ford's Theatre, in Washington, the night Abraham Lincoln was shot and who was stabbed when he tried to hait the assassin, was filed to-day. The estate amounts to $2,800 and is left to his stater Louisa Beck.
